

SEATTLE PICKS™

life + style to you: every Friday

Seattle Picks:

1 Sweetness and Light

We admit it: we're obsessed with cupcakes and refuse to believe their moment in the sun is over! We're not afraid to discuss our theory about how the miniature cake can enhance the quality of life (search "cupcake" in our archives for proof). So, we couldn't have been happier when we headed across the lake and found a (fairly) new little bakery contributing to the cupcake craze—as well as offering gluten-free goodies to our more sensitive sweet-tooth ladies out there!

It's hard not to use "cute" to describe the Sweet Cakes aesthetic, mainly because it's all about the "C": cakes, cookies, and cupcakes. We decided on the lemon bar, and we can vouch for the melt-in-your-mouth freshness that Sweet Cakes promises. Next time, we're headed back for the gluten-free chocolate and cream cheese cupcake.

After we indulged, we noticed that Sweet Cakes also carries some thoughtful accessories to complement cake and cookies: A display of greeting cards and colorful paper plates make it one-stop-shopping if you're headed to a party. Visit and help keep the cupcake dream alive!

Sweet Cakes
128 Park Lane
Kirkland, WA 98033
425.821.6565
www.sweetcakeskirkland.com

September 25th, 2009 ~ www.seattlepicks.com